Nominations Given Senate By Kennedy

Weaver Appointment May Run Into Snag

WASHINGTON, Jan. 30 (AP).—President Kennedy today formally nominated Robert C. Weaver of New York to be Administrator of the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency.

Dr. Weaver, fifty-three is vice-chairman of New York City's Housing and Redevelopment Board and is chairman of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

Mr. Kennedy announced last month his intention to name Dr. Weaver to the Federal housing post, a higher position than any ever held by a Negro in the executive branch of the government. There have been rumblings that the nomination may run into controversy in the Senate.

Other Nominations

Dr. Weaver's name was sent to the Senate today with these other nominations, all previously announced:

ROBERT J. BURKHARDT of New Jersey, Assistant Postmaster General.

NEWTON N. MINOW of Illinois, a member of the Federal Communications Commission for a seven-year term.

ALLEN W. TULLES of New York, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, a post he held during the Eisenhower administration.

WILLIAM H. ORRICK JR. of California, Assistant Attorney General, Civil Division.

REX MARION WHITTON of Missouri, Federal Highway Administrator, Department of Commerce.

MORTIMER M. CAPLIN of Virginia, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

ABRAM CHAYES of Massachusetts, legal adviser to the State Department.

GEORGE C. MCGHEE of Maine, managing director of the Development Loan Fund, State Department.

JOHN E. HORNE of Alabama, Administrator of the Small Business Administration.

PHILIP M. KLUTZNICK of Illinois, representative of the United States on the Economic and Social Council of the United Nations.

Interior Dept. Posts

Mr. Kennedy also announced appointment by Secretary of the Interior Stewart Udall of three key officials of his department. They are:

MAX N. EDWARDS of Hobbs,

N. M., assistant to Mr. Udall and legislative counsel of the Interior Department.

GRAHAM HOLLISTER of Genoa, Nev., a special assistant to the Secretary.

Raymond G. Vendsel of Carpio, N. D., a special assistant to the Assistant Secretary of the Interior for Water and Power.
